Family Learning Child Care

Mission: To provide a safe nurturing environment where children learn and have fun as they grow.

Family Learning Child Care (FLCC), is an on-site childcare service for student parents. In order to be eligible for services, parents must be enrolled and attending Minneapolis Public Schools. Parents may apply for placement in the child care during weekly registration periods. Parents are required to re enroll each school year. The program serves children ages 6 weeks to 6 years.
